

WORD OF LIFE

Super-bowls are SICK!

WORD OF LIFE FELLOWSHIP CANADA INC ~ LOCAL CHURCH MINISTRIES

Eternal Perspectives Winter 2011-12

Dear Friends-

No, Word of Life Super-bowls did not come down with the flu or are on their last legs...quite the opposite! If you've listened to your local teens lately, you'll know that "sick" means "awesome" or "amazing"! So...this year, we are happy to report that Word of Life Super-bowls all across the country are impacting lives for the glory of God. They are, in a word, SICK! This fall from Moncton, New Brunswick to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, 3200 teens and leaders attended Super-bowl events with 195 teens making first time decisions for Christ!

But what do these numbers mean?? Are lives truly changed by the decisions these teens make? The answer is YES. Last year, a high school girl was saved at the Ontario Super-bowl. THIS year, that same student is studying God's Word at Word of Life Bible Institute and actually served on our staff for Super-bowl in Ontario this year!

We never want to take for granted the amazing privilege it is to get to see God at work in the lives of others each fall at these events. We covet your prayers and thank each of you who stand with us by prayer, financial support and often your literal presence as you volunteer to help us or bring your young people to various Super-bowls across the country.

YOU help us make Super-bowls SICK!

Because of Him-

FAMILY UPDATE

Barry will have all the LCM men at our house for a conference in early December.

Amy is preparing to speak at P:31 girls event in March and helping to organize the EBC Ladies Conference in February, as well as “decking the halls” at our house and counting down til the kids come home!

Sam is making preparations for his year long missions internship as part of his final year of the Church Planting & Growth degree at Moody Bible Institute.

Emma is loving her time at Word of Life Bible Institute in Florida. She is enjoying participating in the drama production, “The Sights and Sounds of Christmas”.

Grace is enjoying youth group and is looking forward to playing on her school volleyball team.
